Penicuik Folk Festival

8 - 10 Oct
2004

NAVAAR HOUSE HOTEL, BOG ROAD

Small and friendly, Penicuik Folk Festival looks forward to welcoming old and new friends to another fine folk extravaganza this October, with a varied array of talented guests. The Navaar will have food available all weekend, so there's no reason to be anywhere else!

Join us on Friday evening and Sunday teatime in the Navaar House Hotel for tune and singing sessions, hosted by Penicuik Folk Club regulars. Saturday's All-Star Concert will feature Glasgow bard Adam McNaughtan, with topics from cholesterol to Shakespeare; ace ragtime picking and singing from top bluesman Eddie Walker; and the trio of Rod Paterson, Wendy Stewart and Gary West will present the best in Scottish song and music.

Earlier on Saturday, in our free Midlothian Council workshop series, Lori Watson will take a workshop on fiddle music of the Scottish Borders, and Paterson, Stewart and West will take a workshop on arranging songs. Contact us in September for more info or to book a place.

Our Sunday concert this year showcases upcoming talent. Penicuik High School is a great proving ground for young musicians, and will present a selection of fiddlers, singers and clarsach players; Harriet Bartlett, from the Newcastle area, is a stunning new star on the piano accordion, and The Lori Watson Duo will feature Lori's mature Borders fiddling style.

Our traditional singing competition, for a beautiful trophy donated by Edinburgh Crystal, is run under the rules of the TMSA: entrants sing two contrasting Scottish traditional songs.

Ticket prices: Saturday Concert £10, concs £8. Sunday Youth Showcase Concert £5, concs £4. Weekend ticket £14, concs £11.
